Reporter: An Israeli air strike kills three Hamas militants in Gaza today. This is the second attack in the past five days as Israel steps up its military strikes ahead of a proposed withdrawal from the Gaza Strip.

Hamas leader Sheik Ahmad Yassin sees this as Israeli aggression and maintains that the Hamas will keep attacking Israel.

Yassin (Tape): The Palestinian people will continue their resistance despite this aggression.

Reporter: Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon said that Israeli settlements would be dismantled but a boundary will be imposed on the Palestinians. Although Sharon has pledged to withdraw from Gaza, the Israelis, according to a government official, will still be a threat to the militants.

Pazner (Tape): Israel would continue its campaign against militant groups even after a pullout.

Reporter: The peace plan still remains frozen and neither side have compromised on ending violence or dismantle militant groups.
