*** CALL FOR PAPERS ***

Papers on topics in mathematics, computer science, history, and pedagogy are currently being solicited for the April 16 sectional meeting of the M.A.A. at Thomas Nelson Community College in Hampton, Virginia. Also welcome are proposals for panel discussions or "birds of a feather" sessions on topics of interest to the membership.

Presentation of papers is ordinarily limited to 30 minutes (including a question - answer period). Panel discussions may last up to one hour. Exceptions to these time limits can be arranged.

Teachers, researchers, applied mathematicians and students (undergraduate and graduate) are invited to submit abstracts of talks or panel discussions to:

Robert Lewand
Vice-Chairman for Programs
Department of Mathematics and Computer Science
Goucher College
Towson, Maryland 21204
(301) 337-6239

Faculty members are strongly urged to encourage their students to actively participate in the meeting by presenting a talk (research, problem, project, employment experiences).

Because of the time required to organize, publish and distribute the program, a deadline of February 26, 1983 has been set for receipt of abstracts.
