February 1994

Spring Meeting St. Mary's College of Maryland St. Mary's City, MD April 15-16, 1994

The Spring meeting of the Section will be held on the campus of St. Mary's College on Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16. The program will include a banquet on Friday night, at which Peter Olsen of the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve will speak about the Exxon Valdez clean-up, and a luncheon on Saturday. A regional student conference will be held concurrently; see the enclosed announcement.

St. Mary's College is located on the scenic St. Mary's River in southern Maryland. Historic St. Mary's City adjoins the college and marks the site of Maryland's first colonial settlement. Local attractions include Point Lookout State Park, Patuxent River Naval Air Test and Evaluation Museum, Sotterley Mansion, Calvert Marine Museum, St. Clement's Island-Potomac River Museum, and many historic churches. The region is known for its delicious seafood; there are many crab and seafood houses in the area, featuring the finest and freshest seafood available in the Chesapeake Bay region!

Special rates are offered to conferees (reserve by March 15th) at:

Advance Apology

If, when you receive this Newsletter, every possible deadline seems to have passed already, do not despair. Just call Kevin and complain to him! Oh, no, that's not it... Call Kevin, and he will try to help you. At every point in the preparation and mailing of this Newsletter, the world seemed to come to a standstill because of snow and ice. As usual, we will be as accommodating as we possibly can.

Spread the Word!

In keeping with our usual practice, this Preliminary edition of the Newsletter is being sent only to Institutional Representatives and to those who requested it at the last meeting. We hope to keep down printing and mailing costs in this way. Please share the information in this newsletter with colleagues at your institution.
