Web Developer Internship

Spring 2017 – Fall 2018

Salisbury UNIVERSITY

- Susan Eagle
  - Associate Vice President of Marketing and Public Relations / Advancement and External Affairs
- Todd Smith
  - Web Communications Manager
- David Raizen
  - Web Developer / IT Developer/Analyst
- Andrew Coulbourne
  - Web Developer
- Nicole Bennett
  - Assistant Web Developer
- Ralph Mehitang
  - Intern Web Developer

- Fulfilling work requests issued by Salisbury University faculty and staff

- Manage web pages using Cascade Content Management System (CMS)

- Improve website accessibility using SiteImprove to comply with ADA standards

- A broken, unfinished website was delivered to Salisbury University and was deployed in August

- This caused a huge flow of work requests to fix broken department and organization pages

- New file structure of the new website

- Converting old website format pages to the new format

- New publications policies (images, content, etc)

- Converting old ASP.net code to C#

- COSC 117 Programming Fundamentals
  - Learning Java Swing freshman year helped with positioning elements on the screen with CSS
- COSC 386 Database Systems
  - Using SQL queries in web pages

- JavaScript

- JQuery

- HTML/CSS

- MySQL queries in the real world

- Work request ticketing system